Notice to Tax Payers.

Understanding that the idea prevails that coin will be demanded for state taxes, I hereby give notice that Wisconsin currency will be received by me from the town treasurers as well for state as other taxes.

J. M. BURGESS,
County Treasurer.

For the Gazette and Free Press.
Who Shall be Post-Master.

Yes, Messrs. Editors, who shall be post-master. "That's the question." A question which seems to agitate the minds of not a few disinterested individuals who are willing to sacrifice their own private interests to serve the public in the present emergency. As there are probably several hundred individuals of this character, in Rock county, whose patriotism would lead them to lay their all upon the altar of their country's good, it seems to me that humanity requires that something should be done to prevent this unavailing self-sacrifice. In looking back a few years in our political history, we find that this desire to serve the public ranged to such an extent in the democratic party, that the whole party fell victims to their zeal for their country's good, and nothing but a few dry bones is left of the self-satisfied victims.

It seems to me, Messrs. Editors, that we should learn wisdom from their sad fate, and shun the rock on which they split. Permit me to suggest a remedy for this post-master mania, or epidemic. That in each town (where there is a post office) the town committee call a caucus as in the nomination of town officers, and by ballot select such a person for post-master as they shall think proper, and let such nomination be forwarded to the post-office department, attested by the officers of the meeting, and that all other aspirants for the office be discontinued. That such a course would save much valuable time, avoid ill-feeling, and very much relieve many persons who seem to think they have a special call to serve their country in this capacity, is the humble opinion of a Book Notices.

HINTS ON THE FORMATION OF RELIGIOUS OPINIONS, addressed especially to Young Men and Women of Christian Education, by Rev. Ray Palmer; Boston & Co., New York, 1860. The last glance we have given this treatise enables us only to say that it is addressed to young Christians, who have doubts upon various points of religious belief. The author undertakes to remove the causes of hesitation and uncertainty on the part of young believers, who are disturbed by inward questioning and fears. The object of the work is a good one, and may be beneficial to many. Like all the books from the publishing house of Sheldon & Co., it is beautifully printed and bound.

THE KANGAROO HUNTERS, by A. Bovenman. Published by Orosco, Lee, Nichols & Co. There is no end to the publication of books for the young. The spread of education and the universal distribution of newspapers and periodicals, instead of satisfying the craving desire for knowledge, increases it. In no department is this fact more apparent than in the publication of illustrated works for the youth of our country, and in none are publishers and authors more successful. The Kangaroo Hunters is a book that must delight all who read it. It is romance, imagination and the wonderful, combined with truth. Its vivid descriptions of ship wreck, life on desert islands, hunters adventures, and the marvellous works of nature which so abound in Australia, are equal to the never to be forgotten boy romance of Robinson Crusoe. This volume would make an elegant New Year's present for the young, being handsomely illustrated, well printed and got up generally with neatness and taste. For sale by O. J. Dearborn.

Gorton's Lecture on Temperance.—John B. Gorton, the celebrated lecturer upon temperance, will address the people of Janesville upon that subject, at Lippin's Hall, on Thursday evening next. The mere announcement of the fact, we are confident, will fill the hall to overflowing. Mr. Gorton comes to our city under the auspices of the Janesville Temperance League, and our citizens will best testify their obligation to the members of the league who have been instrumental in affording them this opportunity of listening to the world-renowned lecturer, by a general attendance upon the occasion.

IN BUSINESS AGAIN.—We are certain that a great many people in this city and vicinity will be gratified to learn that Platt Eyelashimer has resumed his old business by renting the market of Thomas Lynch on Main street below the American. While in the market on the bridge, no man in the state kept a better shop than Mr. Eyelashimer, and in his new place he will spare no effort to sustain the reputation he there acquired. A host of old friends will follow Platt into his new quarters, and they will find him at all times with a cheerful smile and a choice piece.

CITY TAXES.—We understand that the application for a decree on the delinquent tax list was with-drawn from court yesterday, in anticipation of some measures to relieve the question of the difficulties which now surround it.

REMOVED.—A. Lucas has removed his barber shop from opposite the Central Bank to the next door to Curtis' Drug store, opposite Hyatt House, dec8d2tvl.

MONETARY.—The Milwaukee Sentinel in its money article of Saturday, says: The week closes without improvement in the money market in any respect. The rate of exchange established by the banks has been merely nominal, for they are not making any, and brokers found no difficulty in obtaining 7/8 of 2 cent. during the last few days for all they could spare, selling to customers only at the inside figure. In fact, the only remittances of any account that are being made are through the medium of hogs and flour, which some of our wholesale merchants are sending forward pretty freely by the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad. On Saturday alone there were not less than $80,000 worth of flour and pork shipped by that route. This of course affords some relief, but it also involves some risk of loss on the part of those who are thus compelled through the inconvenience and unsound character of our currency to go into a description of business of which they have little knowledge in order to convert that currency into something with which they can pay their eastern debts. If anything were needed to prove the uselessness of our currency for the purposes of commerce, this state of things certainly shows it up in its true light, and we trust will open the eyes of our people to the necessity of a better system. It will be seen, by the proceedings of a meeting of the business men of Chicago, that the people of Illinois are moving in the matter of reforming their currency system, and we think that the people of Wisconsin might with good reason follow the example.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, DECEMBER 11, 1860. Receipts of produce were considerably better today than yesterday, and prices of some kinds show a slight improvement. Receipts of wheat were about 1200 bushels, sold at 64¢/65¢ for milling spring, and 55¢/56¢ for shipping, closing with good demand and at those figures. The advance is owing to more favorable prices from the lake shore and eastern markets. Dressed hogs, under cover of an improvement in the Chicago market, were 10¢/11¢ per 100 lbs. lighter, and 20¢/21¢ at a range of 4¢/5¢ per 100 lbs. for light and heavy. Other stuffs unchanged. We make up prices as follows: WHEAT—good to choice milling spring 64¢/65¢; this to good dry shipping 55¢/56¢; damp and grown 45¢/46¢. OATS—dull at 16¢/17¢ per bushel. RYE—declined to 33¢/34¢ per 60 lbs. New in our 18¢/19¢ per 70 lbs. BARLEY—good quality 30¢/31¢ per 50 lbs, common 28¢/29¢. TIMOTHY SEED—in request at 1,50¢/1,70¢ per 40 lbs. DRESSED HOGS—firm at 5,00¢/5,10¢ per 100 for heavy and 4,25¢/4,35¢ for light. POTATOES—plenty at 15¢/16¢ for good to choice ones. BUTTER—wanted at 16¢/17¢ good to choice quality. EGGS—scarcely at 12¢/13¢ per dozen. HIDES—Green, 44¢/45¢; Dry, 41¢, 42¢. FLOUR—spring at 24¢, per 100 lbs. POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 67¢/68¢; chickens, 65¢ SHEEP PELTS—range from 26¢/27¢ each.

New and Fashionable FRENCH MILLINERY.

MISS REYNOLDS would respectfully inform the ladies of Janesville and its vicinity that she is now prepared to show an extensive and elegant stock of
